Voluntary Participation Responsibility and Risk Acknowledgment for the 17th Zhejiang International Traditional Wushu Competition

1. I voluntarily participate in the 17th Zhejiang International Traditional Wushu Competition and sign this Responsibility Letter.
2. I have fully understood and agreed to abide by the competition regulations, rules, requirements and safety measures formulated by this competition.
3. I have fully assessed my physical condition, confirm that my health is in good condition, and that I am fit to participate. I have made adequate preparations for the competition and voluntarily assume the corresponding risks.
4. I am fully aware of the risks that may occur during the competition and have prepared the necessary precautions. I will participate in the competition with an attitude responsible for my own safety.
5. I am willing to assume the responsibility for any personal accidents that occur during the competition and agree that the conference shall not bear any form of compensation for injuries or any losses caused by reasons not attributable to the conference.
6. I agree to accept the emergency medical treatment provided by the conference during the competition, but any related costs incurred after leaving the venue, such as hospital treatment, will be borne by me.
7. I promise to participate under my own name and not impersonate anyone else; otherwise, I voluntarily assume all legal responsibilities.
8. I have carefully read and fully understand the above content, and confirm all the above content and assume the corresponding legal responsibility.
9. I, as a participant, agree that all activities including practice, competition, and other events may be filmed, recorded, or broadcast live on television. I consent to the use of my name, address, voice, actions, images, and biographical information by the Zhejiang Wushu Association, the main organizers, and undertaking organizations in all or part of the form, in any language without any restrictions, on television, radio, video, media graphics, or any media device, even in the future without any claim for remuneration or compensation.
10. I guarantee that I am healthy before and during the competition, without any other infectious diseases or suspected symptoms, in compliance with the relevant health and epidemic prevention policies for major events in Zhejiang Province. If there is any falsehood, I am willing to bear all responsibilities.
